The irony, of course, is that his remedy for her powerlessness is to make her powerless in a different way, and his experiment with beauty and power, monstrosity and marvel, is to limit her access to any male other than her father until such time as he deems her ready: in scientific terms, a controlled genetic experiment; in cultural terms the old world habit of arranged marriages. I absolutely liked and thoroughly enjoyed reading the author's The Bro-Magnet my review of which can be read here and I was sure Pursuing the Times would be just as entertaining.
